

Music in the Land of Three Faiths

You are invited to a very special evening of music by The IVORY CONSORT in a benefit fundraiser for SEEDS OF PEACE, an organization that is dedicated to empowering young people from regions of conflict, including young Israelis and Palestinians, with the leadership skills required to advance reconciliation and coexistence.

The Ivory Consort presents a fascinating mosaic of songs from the Golden Age of Spain, when Jews, Muslims and Christians forged a common musical language. The program features 10th through 13th century songs in Ladino, Hebrew, Arabic and Galician-Portuguese and provides a historical context for the intermingling of cultures that took place before the 1492 Expulsion. The six musicians, led by Jay Elfenbein, are internationally recognized for their mastery of authentic period instruments that further enrich an already special experience.

TUESDAY, November 1, 2005
7 p.m. Program

All Souls Unitarian Church in the Sanctuary
1157 Lexington Avenue (80th Street)

Admission: $15 suggested donation; $10 seniors, students, and low income

This event is presented by Artists for Humanity and the Peace Task Force of All Souls; cosponsors include Community Church Action for Justice Committee, the Dialogue Project, and Not In Our Name Education Committee.

For more information: russellbranca@yahoo.com or www.peacetaskforcenyc.org